Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an outstanding Missouri citizen who has distinguished himself through many years of excellence in the workplace; and

Whereas, Leland Ewalt, an esteemed resident of Knox City, Missouri, officially retired from the Knox City Post Office on April 2, 2007, after a long and illustrious career that had spanned an incredible six decades; and

Whereas, Leland Ewalt played an integral role in the lives of countless Missourians as a rural mail carrier for the Knox City Post Office, providing the essential service to citizens in the Knox City community for more than sixty years; and

Whereas, during his impressive tenure, Leland Ewalt endured horrible weather, maintained a clean driving record, and went through twenty-five different vehicles serving his route; and

Whereas, Leland Ewalt has witnessed some major changes with the United States Postal Service which include the termination of the railway mail service that traveled through Knox City, and the relocation of the Knox City Post Office to a much nicer, newer building in 1991; and

Whereas, a former member of the United States Army's 31st Amphibian Assault Force, Leland Ewalt looks forward to having more time to spend pursuing his various hobbies which include scrap booking and working outdoors:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join in expressing our utmost appreciation to Leland Ewalt for his sixty years of unparalleled service to the United States Postal Service and the Knox City Post Office; and
